The information requested in this form is required for enrolment purposes. This information is collected to plan for and support the educational needs of your child.

This form should be completed by parents or carers who are responsible for enrolling their child. It is the responsibility of the person completing this form to consult with all other adults that need to be involved in the enrolment process. Parents or carers can co-sign the same form or complete separate forms if personal details are unable to be shared between them.

If required information is not provided or there is a dispute between parents or carers about a child's enrolment, the enrolling principal is required to consider the student's education and wellbeing when deciding whether to defer or accept the enrolment.

Only one enrolment form should be submitted per student. By completing and submitting this enrolment form, you are accepting a place for your child at the specified school (subject to any further checks required by the school).

All schools across Australia are expected to collect the same information. Questions marked with a ❖ are asked as a requirement of the Commonwealth Government to meet data collection, funding and reporting requirements under the Australian Education Regulations 2013.

Enrolment Documentation Checklist for Parents and Carers

Schools collect information as part of the enrolment process to support your child when they start school. To verify this information, schools may ask for supporting documentation.

Frequently Asked Questions

What school can I enrol my child in?

Your child is guaranteed a place at their local school (the school they are zoned for). To find your local school, visit the Find my School website at www.findmyschool.vic.gov.au. You can also request enrolment at another government school, even if you do not live in the school zone. Your child should be offered enrolment if the school has available places.

Why do I need to provide supporting documents to the school?

Schools require supporting documents to verify your child's name, date of birth, address, residency status, care arrangements and medical or health-related needs. These documents help the school meet their legal responsibilities and ensure your child receives appropriate support when they start school. They also help the school to correctly respond to your child's needs in the event of a first aid incident or medical emergency.

How do I know what supporting documents I need to provide?

Read this checklist to see what documents are required. Not all documents are mandatory and may depend on your child's individual circumstances. If you have any questions, please contact your school for support.

When do I need to provide supporting documents to the school?

Schools request supporting documents after your child has been offered enrolment. This is generally when you are asked to complete a full enrolment form. The only exception is proof of address and temporary residency visa documents for international students, which schools may request earlier.

Do I need to provide all the suggested documents if my child is moving from a government school to a new government school?

No, if your child is enrolled in a government school and is moving to another government school, you do not need to provide all the suggested documents. Examples of required documents might include recent proof of address and updated health and medical records. The school will let you know what supporting documents you need to provide.

Can I submit digital copies of the required documents, or do they need to be physical copies?

Yes, you can provide copies of documents to the school either in-person or digitally. You do not need to provide documents in their original form.

What if a school requests a document not on the checklist?

You do not need to provide additional documents to enrol your child, e.g. NAPLAN results or school reports. However, sharing more information once your child has been offered enrolment can help the school better understand and support your child's learning needs.

Note: This does not apply to international students on temporary visas who must apply with the Department of Education International Education and may require further documentation.

What should I do if I can't provide a document or need more information?

It is important that you provide all required documentation, so your child receives appropriate support when starting school. If documents are missing or if information is incomplete, the school may delay your child's admission for up to 5 days. During this time, you will need to collect and submit the missing documents to the school. If you do not have all the documents needed for your child's enrolment, please contact the school for support. Schools are committed to ensuring enrolment practices do not unfairly disadvantage families facing difficult situations, such as those experiencing homelessness, family violence or recently arrived immigrants or refugees.

How long will the school keep my child's information?

The school will keep most of the information you provide for at least 7 years. This is so the school complies with public record keeping laws. The school will also need to keep a permanent summary of your child's information. This summary includes your child's name, date of birth, address and the name and contact details of any parent or carer of the student.

How is my information managed by a school?

The Department of Education and schools value your privacy and are committed to protecting information that schools collect. All information collected in the enrolment form and supporting documentation is managed as described in the schools' privacy policy (available here: www.vic.gov.au/schools-privacy-policy).

Photographing, Filming and Recording Students at Melrose Primary School -

Consent Form

There are many occasions during the school year when staff photograph, film or record students participating in school activities or events. We do this for many reasons including to celebrate student participation and achievement, showcase learning programs, document a student's learning journey, camps, excursions, sports events etc, communicate with our parents and school community in newsletters and on classroom blogs/apps/programs.

Our Photographing, Filming and Recording Students Policy, describes how we will collect and use photographs, video and recordings (images) of students. The policy also explains when parent/carer consent is required and how it can be provided and withdrawn.

Please note there are uses of images that do not require consent. These include curriculum based activities (i.e. class work), identity management, managing behavioural and safety incidents, to support a student's health and wellbeing, and to provide individual feedback or communication to a student, their parents/carers and/or school staff. If you have any concerns about the use of photographs in our school, for example, due to safety or cultural reasons, please contact the Principal or Assistant Principal at the school on 0260 591 955.

We will provide an annual reminder to parents about our Photographing, Filming and Recording Students Policy via the school newsletter. We will also notify parents when implementing software that may include photos of students, giving parents an opportunity to discuss any concerns or preferences.

This consent form applies to images of students that are collected and used by our school.

Melrose Primary School request that parents/carers, students and invited guests who photograph, film or record school activities, only do so for their own personal use and do not publish the images in any form, including on social media, without the prior consent of persons whose children also appear in the images.

Neither the school nor the department own or control any images of students taken by parents/carers, students or their invited guests at school activities.

If you do not understand any aspect of this consent form, or you would like to talk about any concerns you have, please contact our school at Melrose.ps@education.vic.gov.au or phone the school office 0260591955.
